Wesley UMC is located in downtown Minneapolis at the corner of Grant and Marquette (First Ave. S.), immediately adjacent to the Minneapolis Convention Center. They provide free parking in two locations: small parking lot behind the church (enter from First Ave., one-way northbound—use spaces with Wesley signs); and underground Convention Center ramp (enter from 12th St., one-way eastbound, between Marquette and Second Ave., or from Second Ave. between 12th St. and Marquette). Print “Wesley Church” and your name on the back of the ticket as you enter and hand it back to the attendant. Take Elevator 1 from the ramp to plaza level (PL). Wesley is across the street.

Minneapolis, Minn.*

Bishop Sally Dyck preaching

On May 4, 1956, in Minneapolis,
the General Conference of The Methodist Church
granted women full clergy rights.

We will observe this anniversary with a worship service,
lunch,
and a celebration.

Worship will take place at 10:30 a.m.
at Wesley United Methodist Church, 101 East Grant Street, Minneapolis.

Lunch and a celebration will immediately follow
at the Minneapolis Convention Center, 1301 Second Avenue South, Minneapolis.

Clergy women: Please bring your clerical robe and join the processional.

Cost is $20 per person. Scholarships are available.
Contact the Rev. Kathi Austin Mahle at (612) 230-6155 or kathi.mahle@mnumc.org for scholarship information.

If you would like information about overnight accommodations, contact the Rev. Gail Alexander at (612) 722-0232 or citymaple@earthlink.net.

Do you or does someone in your congregation remember 1956's General Conference? What was the reaction to the vote for full clergy rights for women? Send your reflections or stories to the Rev. Pat Toschak at 513 Third Street Southwest, Austin, MN 55912 or ptoschak@clear.lakes.com or to Thelma Boeder c/o Minnesota Annual Conference, 122 West Franklin Avenue, Suite 400, Minneapolis, MN 55404 or tboeder@visi.com.
