United Methodists In Service

RATE CARD 2012

Advertisements may be in English or Korean.

United Methodists In Service serves lay leaders and clergy in Korean-speaking United Methodist churches in the United States as it:

- nurtures Korean-speaking United Methodists in their faith;
- assists pastors in leading effective ministry;
- connects church leaders with other United Methodists in service to Christ and the world.

Published six times a year in Korean, United Methodists In Service offers its readers faith stories, ministry ideas, worship resources, meditations, news of The United Methodist Church and the Korean community, and other information.

TERMS & AGREEMENT

General Advertising Policy

Advertising for all publications must conform to the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church and is subject to editorial approval. All advertising should, as much as possible, reflect the cultural diversity that exists within The United Methodist Church. Advertising policy prohibits advertising programs or resources that are in direct competition with official United Methodist programs or resources. All advertisements must comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations, as well as have no political agenda. Therefore, United Methodist Communications reserves the right to refuse advertisements that do not comply with these policies, as well as other inappropriate or unacceptable advertising. United Methodist Communications is not liable for any costs relative to an advertisement that is rejected.

Advertising Policy and First-Time Advertiser Requirements

No advertisement will be published without execution of a valid advertising contract. All new advertisers must complete a credit application form and provide appropriate financial information to United Methodist Communications. For first-time advertisers, initial ads are to be paid in advance. With credit approval, subsequent ads can be invoiced by United Methodist Communications directly to the advertiser and/or the advertising agent upon publication of the issue that contains the advertisement.

Payment Policy and Delinquency Status

All invoices for advertising should be paid within 30 days of invoice date. If payment is not received, accounts are considered delinquent. United Methodist Communications will initiate contact to inform advertiser of delinquent status. An advertising account in delinquent status is subject to rejection of future advertisements. Furthermore, ads that already have been contracted for (such as annual contracts) are subject to being pulled from the issues in which they are scheduled to run.

Cancellation/Change Policy

Cancellations are not accepted after the reservation deadline. Cancellations must be made in writing. Advertisers requesting changes in advertisement dimensions after the reservation deadline will incur a late fee of $50 per occurrence. Advertisers providing artwork or other material after the ad art deadline will incur a late fee of $50 per occurrence. An advertiser requesting or authorizing United Methodist Communications to make changes in text, art or design of an existing advertisement will incur a fee of $50 per occurrence. All requests and authorizations for such changes must be submitted in writing.

Indemnification

In consideration of publication of an advertisement, the advertiser and the agency, jointly and severally, will indemnify and hold harmless United Methodist Communications, its officers, agents and employees against expenses (including legal fees) and losses resulting from the publication of the contents of the advertisement, including, without limitation, claims or suits for libel, violation of right of privacy, copyright infringements or plagiarism.
