WHY DO WE GIVE TO APPORTIONED FUNDS?

Apportionments form the framework for our individual and congregational participation in mission and ministry beyond the local church. When you donate to your local church, a portion of what you give supports apportionments. Your gifts will help change lives both locally and around the world. For stories about how you make a difference, visit UMC.org/en/how-we-serve/umcgiving/impact-articles

HOW DO YOUR GIFTS SUPPORT BLACK COLLEGE FUND?

United Methodists support the largest number of fully accredited historically Black colleges and universities in the United States. The church established the Black College Fund to provide financial support for the eleven United Methodist-related historically black colleges and universities. Most students are first-generation college coeds. Gifts to the Black College Fund support solid and challenging academic programs, faculty development, strong faculties, and well-equipped facilities, maintain infrastructure, and financial support and scholarships for students.
