

JOHN WESLEY SPEAKS ON

LOVE

- "I want you to be all love; that is the perfection that I seek."
- "Though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, though we are not of one opinion?"
- "Love cannot be hid any more than light; and least of all when it shines forth in action, when ye exercise yourselves in the labour of love, in beneficence of every kind. As well may men think to hide a city as to hide a Christian."
- "An ounce of love is worth a pound of knowledge."
- "Love is the fulfilling of the law, the end of the commandment." It is not only "the first and great" command, but all the commandments in one.
"Whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise," they are all comprised in this one word, love".
- "Being a stranger, enemy, or outcast, is no barrier to a Methodist's love."
